Updates Round Table

Courtney: I would love for everyone to introduce themselves to get to know each other better.

**Everyone introduced themselves with their name, position, and hopes for the position this year. **

2. Chief Electoral Officer Selection – Volunteer needed to review applications

Courtney: We need to hire the Chief Electoral Officer, and I need an extra set of eyes to review them with me. It shouldn't take too long, and I was hoping we can do it soon to assist with 1L elections. I am hoping to have the 1Ls elected earlier as October is a bit late. The 1L reps then come in halfway through the semester, which makes it difficult for them to plan events.

Christina: I can help!

Courtney: Great – thank you Christina!

3. Housekeeping: Office, code, and meeting schedule

Courtney: We are having this meeting on Zoom, but do we have a preference moving forward for virtual, in-person, or hybrid?

Melissa: I do not have classes on Wednesday so if a hybrid option is possible, that would be great!

Courtney: Great – we can do Hybrid this semester. We will meet on campus but also have a Zoom room running in the boardroom where we meet.

Courtney: As for the L&L office, it is room 014E, next to the Caucus Office. It is currently quite messy. Once O-Week is finished, we are going to set up a time and volunteers can come and help clean it up.

**Courtney shared the L&L Office code with the executive. **

Courtney: Please do not share the code with others.

Courtney: In terms of meetings, meetings for L&L happen every 2 weeks. We met this week, Caucus meets next week, and we meet again after that. We will meet on Wednesdays from 12:30-2:30pm. Before reading week, we just pick up as if Reading week never happened.

Office Hours

Courtney: Pre-COVID, L&L used to have at least one person in the office for 2 hours each day to make sure that every day, someone is available to chat with students. The tentative schedule is as follows:

Monday

12:30-2:30 ~ Christina

2:30-4:30 ~ Melissa

Tuesday

12:30-2:30 ~ Jess

2:30-4:30 ~ Ayesha

Wednesday

Courtney (time tbd)

Damiana (time tbd)

Thursday

12-2 ~ Hilary

3-4 ~ Rose

Hopefully, next week, we can have those posted on the doors.

Miscellaneous Updates

Courtney: In terms of the JCR and JCR profits, we want to try to keep it cheap to encourage people to come. Any profit we do make would be directed back to the JCR for things like a beer pong tournament with a good prize.

Ayesha: Adding an additional $1 or $2 still makes it cheap.

Courtney: As long as it goes back to the students using the JCR, then that's fine.

Courtney: Next, we need to discuss Events. If hosting an on-campus event, you must go through the TUUS process. You need to do it to use university space (even the JCR). For off-campus events, that process is a lot easier. It involves speaking with Karen Drake.

Courtney: I also wanted to thank Christina who helped plan & execute the most amazing O-Week! In speaking of O-Week, in terms of L&L funding, the final budget will be submitted to Damiana after O-Week has concluded. Any other questions?

Melissa: When should I send out the first weekly newsletter?

Courtney: For the first newsletter, if there is something to say go for this Sunday, then go for it, and if not, the first one can go out next Sunday.

This is the full list of clubs that have done all the steps – there are 60 clubs. I can confirm that all these clubs submitted their documents and attended the meeting. If nobody has concerns, we can vote them all in. There are 6 new clubs that will be ratified (4 new and 2 that were previously defund).

Jess: I will email all the clubs to let them know we are ratified and that we'll see them at Clubs Fair.

Jess: Next, we have to look at the defunct clubs. Does anyone have anything they want to discuss?

Courtney: Was it the Athletics Association that helped organize intramurals?

Jess: Maybe L&L can take it over? If people ask, we can have them email L&L about what sport they are hoping to join, and we can connect them to other interested students.

Motion: *THAT the Legal and Literary Society, given that: there has been no communication from the following groups; they have not attended the All Clubs Meeting; and that they have not submitted any ratification materials, declares the following clubs as defunct:

Legal Philosophy Club
Osgoode Behavioural Economics and the Law Club (OBELC)

(Li/Tassopoulos) CARRIED.

Jess: Those clubs are now defunct.

Clubs Fair

Jess: I wanted to take this time to talk about Clubs Fair, which is happening this Friday from 12-2pm and it is taking over the first floor of Osgoode. There will be tables in Gowlings, JCR, and Helliwell. I would love as much help as possible. If you can be there, I would really appreciate it. We are also hoping to have an L&L table. If people can represent at the L&L table, that would be great. I know Ayesha, Danielle, and Christina are free so feel free to coordinate timing. You will probably be next to Caucus and the Senators (probably in Gowlings). I ordered 20 tables. I will also send a brochure for Melissa to send out with details about the fair like time and place. We already posted graphic on the Instagram, and clubs have been posting their own graphics.

Other Business

Courtney: Upper year yearbooks are now in the L&L office and composites are likely at Val's apartment.

Rose: The agendas should be here in the first week of October.

Courtney: I will send out draft schedule for office hours. Also, is anyone has not been sworn in yet, we will do that next meeting.

Ayesha: I got a notification that the domain for L&L website is expiring so I will renew that.

Motion: *THAT the meeting be adjourned.

(Cameron/ Tassopoulos) CARRIED.
